Lord Jesus Christ, Living Bread, vulnerable as bread placed in the hand;

To be accepted with joy or cast aside,

Satisfying as bread to the hungry and giving life for the future;
broken like bread that all may share

And as necessary as bread to sustain our living.

You are for us our bread of life.

Lord Jesus Christ, Living Wine, rich as the blood red, sun-filled grape grape.

Taken, pressed and destroyed, to new-create;

Welcome as the clean, fresh draught from the host to the visitor
And refreshing the traveller on the weary journey;

Poured out in love that all may share
and gift to our thirst to meet our need.

You are for us our spiritual drink.
